

EHD

EVENTS: Fall 2014

Bass Connections: Education and Human Development

Location: All Events will be hosted at SSRI on the 2nd floor of Gross Hall behind the Bryan Center

- September 2      What Bass Connections Is, and How You Can Get Involved
6:00pm              Presenters: Professors Tom Nechyba and Martin Zelder
- September 9      "The Providence Effect"
6:00pm              Join the EHD for a screening and discussion of the documentary "The Providence Effect."
- September 16     Neuroimmune Interactions in Early Development and the Biological Embedding of Health Disparities
6:00pm              Presenter: Stacy Bilbo, Duke Institute for Brain Sciences and Psychology/Neuroscience
- September 23    Health and Mental Health as Children Grow Up
6:00pm              Presenter: Jane Costello, Psychiatry and Psychology/Neuroscience
- September 30    Finding the 'Real' Slums of Bangalore
6:00pm              Presenter: Anirudh Krishna, Sanford School
- October 7          Compensatory Brain Activity in Older Adults
6:00pm              Presenter: Roberto Cabeza, Psychology/Neuroscience and Duke Institute for Brain Sciences
- October 21        "The Interrupters"
6:00pm              Join the EHD for a screening and discussion of the documentary "The Interrupters."
- October 28        Cognitive Skills and Human Capital in Development: How Do Innovations in Measurement Enhance the Picture?
6:00pm              Presenter: Amar Hamoudi, Sanford School
- November 4        e-Kids: Using New Technologies to Capture and Change Kids' Behaviors
6:00pm              Presenter: Candice Odgers, Sanford School and Psychology/Neuroscience
- November 11     Topic TBA
6:00pm              Presenter: Ralph Savarese, English (visiting from Grinnell College)
- November 18     "Dead Poets Society"
6:00pm              Join the EHD for a screening and discussion of the film "Dead Poets Society."
- December 2        Implications of Early Education for Academic Outcomes in Elementary School
6:00pm              Presenter: Clara Muschkin, Sanford School and Center for Child and Family Policy