

AFRICAN CONFLICTS: THE ENVIRONMENTAL DIMENSIONS

A talk by
MIKE COWING

M O N D A Y
November 17, 2014
217 PERKINS LIBRARY
4:30 - 5:30PM

Mike Cowing is an internationally renowned environmental expert with more than 30 years of experience spanning more than 50 countries around the globe. Noted for his work in addressing the health and environmental concerns of conflict and disaster-affected areas, Cowing has been a part of missions in Nigeria, Liberia, Cote D'Ivoire, Ghana, Ethiopia, Uganda, Morocco, Egypt, Sudan, and South Sudan, as well as Asia, Latin America, and the Middle East.

Presented by

Bass Connections in Energy, Nicholas School of the Environment, and the Africa Initiative

THIS EVENT IS FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC